A Community Art Organization

who we are

We are art enthusiasts, patrons of the arts and professional artists working to make the arts an integral part of life in our community.

The Art Guild of Menomonee Falls (AGMF) is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization managed and supported by community members and volunteers. Our focus is to provide local artists with opportunities and resources for networking, exhibiting and artistic development workshops.

our mission

- to raise public awareness about the visual arts in Menomonee Falls
- to create networking opportunities for area artists and arts organizations
- to offer programs and events that encourage community involvement and interaction with the arts

who can join

Membership is open to anyone 18 years of age or older. Residents of all communities are welcome.

We're an active organization and we need you! Your $36 annual membership dues, tax-deductible contributions, and attendance at Guild-sponsored events send the message that art is important to the quality of life in Menomonee Falls.
